The opening of the new Lexington High School brought prospects for not only being able to gain knowledge in many fields but also being able to renew old acquaintances and establish new ones. People who at first were only faces became friends who will be cherished throughout our entire lives.

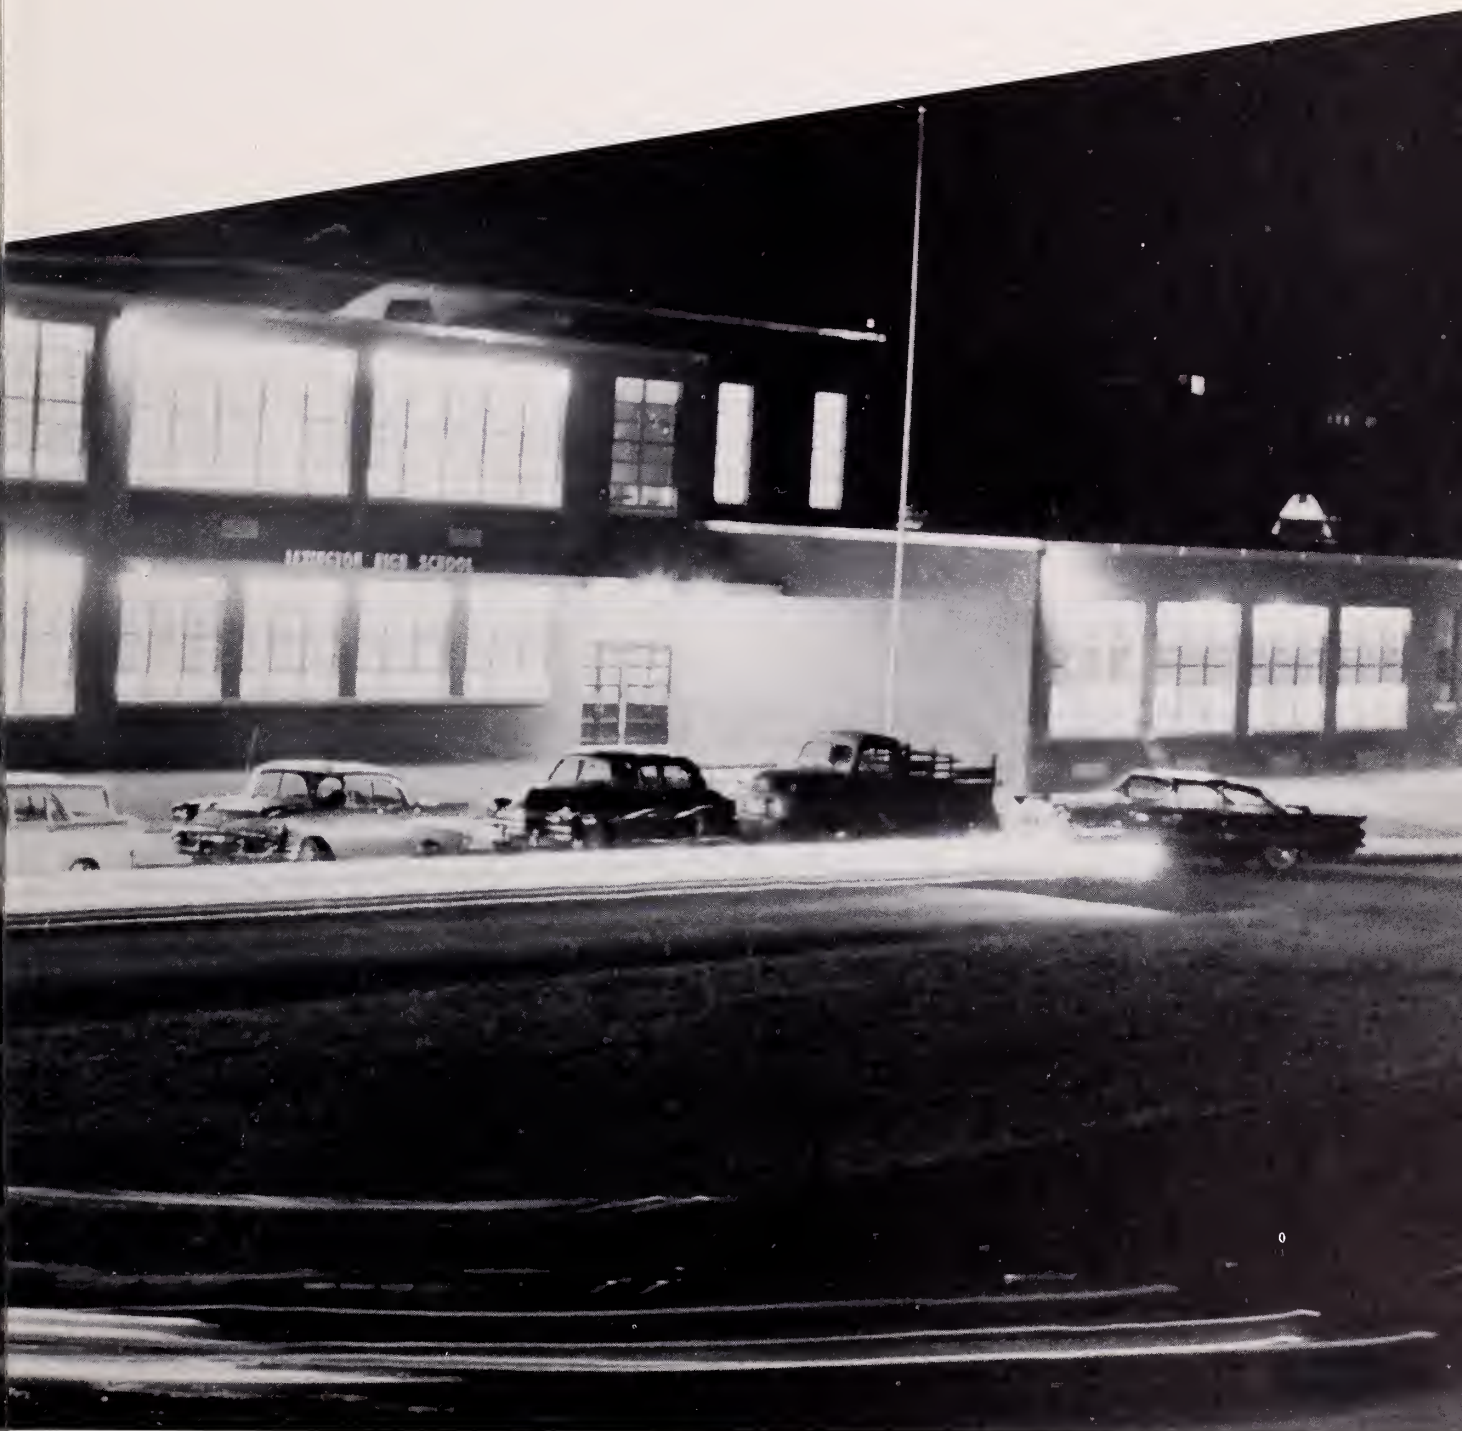

A new school always brings with it a wave of school spirit and devotion. Ours has been no exception. We of the CRYSTAL have attempted in this publication to show the school spirit exhibited in extracurricular and scholastic activities and in the participation in the athletic program.

Dedication

MISS MARY E. HAMILTON

To one whose outstanding personality has brightened all facets of school life; to one whose teachings have deepened our understanding of the humanities and of the world; to one whose absence has been so keenly felt this year; to one whose love and kind words will continue to be with us and strengthen our lives, we, the Class of 1961, dedicate this our CRYSTAL to MISS MARY E. HAMILTON.

This year's student body has increased both in number and in devotion to the school. Every person on the following pages has given of his time and talents at some time to make the new Lexington High School a better place for everyone concerned.

MADISON CUMMINGS
President

EDWARD JOHNSTON
Vice-President

SAMMIE WRIGHT
Secretary-Treasurer

It is almost impossible for us to give a history of the Class of 1961, since the class as we know it came about only this year. It now consists of students from both the old Lexington High School and the Effinger High School.

At the beginning of the year we chose Madison Cummings, Edward Johnston and Sammie Wright to be our president, vice-president and secretary-treasurer, respectively. To the Honor Council we sent Dottie Newman, Percy Sensabaugh and Edward Johnston. Our greatest reward, however, lay in the fact that one of our group, Wally Carson, was elected president of the student body.

The first endeavor of the new class was the Homecoming Dance. Due to the fact that the gym in the new school could not be used, the dance was held in the auditorium of the former Lexington High School.

This year, for the first time, the prudence of a Senior Trip to Washington was questionable. At the time of this writing the future of the trip was still unknown.

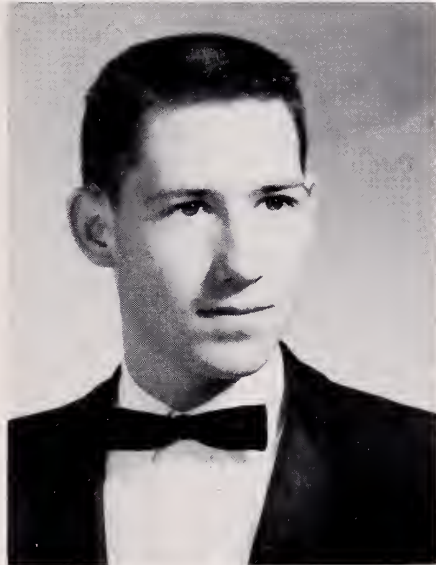

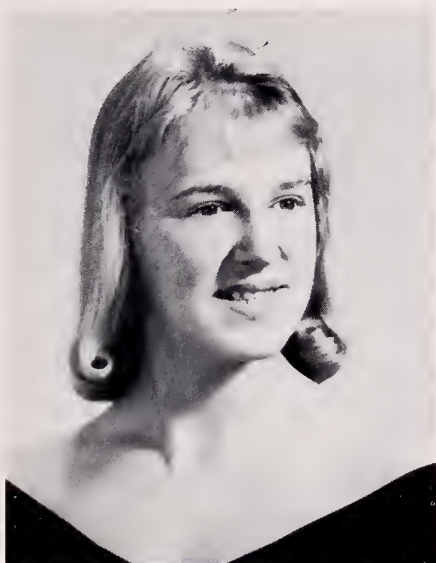

May brought the due reward for our labors of last year—the junior class honored us with the traditional Junior-Senior Prom. A grand success, this will long be remembered by all concerned.

The next star on the horizon for the Class of 1961 is graduation. All seniors are awaiting with joy this day when we can say, "We are the first alumni of the new Lexington High School."

During this school year school spirit has played the largest part ever in determining the success of all our athletic feats involving enthusiasm and sportsmanship. Red and white waved high as night after night brought new conquests and victories. Early in the fall the Hurricanes brewed the gigantic waves, which swept all the teams in its wake to the ranks of the defeated.

Coach Stuart "Pete"
Brewbaker.

Assistant Coach, Paul Coffey

Co-captain Percy Sensabaugh, Co-captain
Yodie Hamric.

ON ALL-DISTRICT TEAM

LEXINGTON 39

BEDFORD 0

In the opening game of the season Fred Swisher (34) wards off tackler Nicky Williams (23) to grind out easy yardage. The mighty Hurricanes scored in every quarter to crush the visiting Otters from Bedford.

LEXINGTON 48

CLIFTON FORGE 20

Ray Fox (14) drags an unidentified tackler over the goal for another L.H.S. score, clinching a 48-20 victory over hapless Clifton Forge here in Lexington. Blocking for Fox are Madison Cummings (47) and Lew Green (39). Clifton Forge never seriously threatened, even though it was the first time the Scarlet Hurricanes had been scored upon.

LEXINGTON 25

NATURAL BRIDGE 0

In Lexington's first Valley I-B thriller the forward progress of Rocket halfback Grim (22) is checked by Neofotis' (15) shoestring tackle. L.H.S. drive was sparked when Ray Fox intercepted a Rocket pass and scampered forty yards to paydirt. The Hurricanes rode on to skunk Natural Bridge on their new field.

LEXINGTON 26

ROBERT E. LEE 7

Co-captains Yodie Hamric (10) and Percy Sensabaugh (65) exchange words with Staunton's co-captains John Matthews (51) and Jerry Van Fossen (59) before returning to the pre-game huddle. The Lexington High School team then went on to score its fourth straight 1960 victory and second Valley I-B District triumph by outstaying Staunton's Fighting Leemen 26-7 in Staunton.

LEXINGTON 41

WILSON MEMORIAL 7

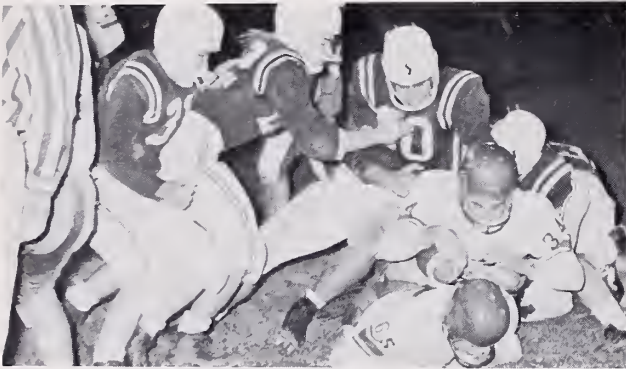

Lexington's Big Reds make final preparations for the game in which they gave the Green Hornets the first touchdown but came back to blow them home with a decisive scoring rampage. Hamric took to the air and brought in three touchdowns with passes to Mays, Patterson and Carson.

LEXINGTON 33 WAYNESBORO 6

The Waynesboro Little Giants' homecoming game Friday night turned out to be a 33-6 rout at the hands of the visiting Scarlet Hurricane. Each member of the Hurricanes' backfield scored once as the Reds made five touchdowns. Typical of the hard-fought game is this picture of halfback George Neofotis (15), tackled by four Waynesboro players.

LEXINGTON 7 BUENA VISTA 14

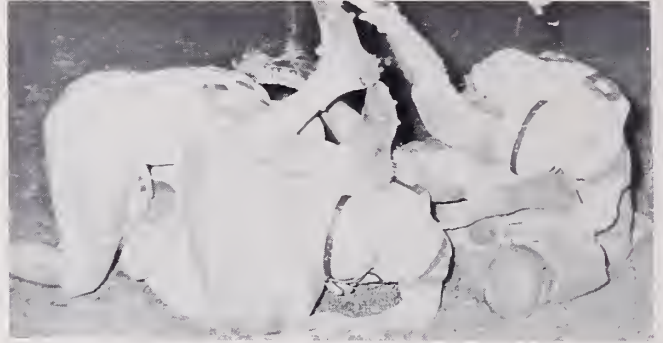

The lone score is tallied by quarterback "Yodie" Hamric (10) as he battles his way past Byers (23) across the Buena Vista goal line. Buena Vista went on to score twice in the second half to capture the Group I-B championship, leaving the Scarlet Hurricane in second place in overall play.

GRINDING FALL PRACTICE

LEXINGTON 2 ALBEMARLE 13

Coach Stuart "Pete" Brewbaker tries to rejuvenate the players at the traditional half-time break. However, his pep talk was to no avail, for Lexington suffered its first defeat at the hands of the Albemarle Patriots. Lexington's only score came on a freak play, as the Albemarle center hiked the ball over the punter's head out of the end-zone for a third quarter safety.

LEXINGTON 27 HARRISONBURG 14

Swisher (34) with handoff from quarterback Hamric (10) plunges over teammate Sensabaugh (65) from Harrisonburg's four-yard line for Lexington's second touchdown. The new scoreboard, dedicated at this game, flashed a 27-14 homecoming victory.

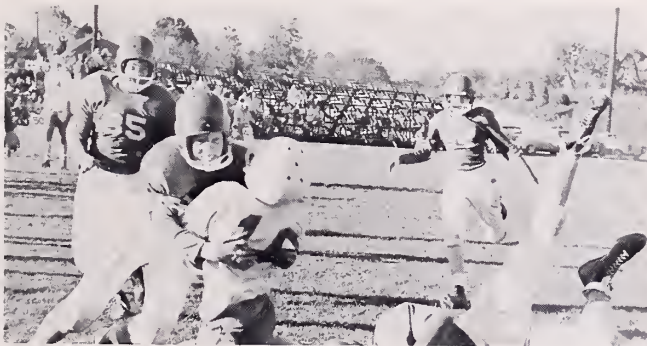

Co-captains Percy Sensabaugh (65) and "Yodie" Hamric (10) show the winning smiles and true teamwork of Lexington's fighting Scarlet Hurricanes. The boys piloted the team to a grand tally of 248 points, allowing only 81 points to their opponents.

PAYS OFF IN SEASON'S RETURNS

First row: Billy Craft, George Craft, Bobby Weaver, Peach Coleman, Paul Baker, Eddie Swink, Butch Straub, Danny Durrange, Roger Conner, Carl Eubank, Vernon Hughes, Carl Cummings, Brud Waddell, and Morrow Miller. Second row: Dennis Vest, Wayne Miller, Buzzy Moore, Jimmy Bowen, Ronald Plott, Laurie Lipscomb, Larry Armentrout, Tommy Bennington, Carl

Tackle Jimmy Agnor (85) and end Roger Conner (54) lope up to help teammate Paul Plott (37) to his feet after his attempt to assist Mike Claytor in stopping Fairfield's Clem Clark (10). The game ended in a 0-0 deadlock.

Roger Conner checks Fairfield's Swisher as he crosses mid-field after stopping a Lexington drive with an interception on his own three yard-line.

The "Big Eight" makes its debut at the Bedford pep rally. Kneeling are Janice Foltz, Betty Cummings, and Sandra Hostetter. Standing are Sammie Wright, Pam Johnson, Vicki Nuckols, Nancy Howard, and Dottie Newman.

Modeling smiles of victory before the Lexington trophy case are Betty Cummings, head cheerleader; Miss Lucy Campbell, cheerleading advisor; and Sammie Wright, secretary-treasurer.

CHEERLEADERS

Great expectation and intense interest are clearly visible on the faces of the students at the final football pep rally. Special guests at this pep rally were the "Buena Vista" cheerleaders, who performed their hilarious cheers and threw their charm into the stands to bring a record-breaking crowd to the Buena Vista game.

STRESS SCHOOL SPIRIT

In pinwheel formation are Nancy, Sandra, Dottie, Betty, Sammie, Pam, Vicki, and Janice as they climax the "Scarlet Hurricane" chant.

Both varsity and junior varsity cheerleaders join together in a victory "V" and winning smiles. Those in the outside formation include Sheila Fix, Betty Dobyns, Rayma Fox, Rosa McLaughlin, Donna Marshall, Shirley Fix, Missy Atthowe, and Jean Anne Sheridan. Standing are Vicki Nuckols, Sammie Wright, Dottie Newman, Betty Cummings, Janice Foltz, Sandra Hostetter, Nancy Howard, and Pam Johnson.

Coach Brewbaker discusses vital strategy with "Scoby" McClung (11), Alden Whitmore (33), Phil Patterson, and Dan Burger during the final minutes of play. The Hurricanes went on to sweep Staunton to a 48-47 defeat.

Dan Burger frantically rises above Waynesboro's Doug Gordon to grab the rebound. Lexington made a futile attempt to whip the Giants and bowed to a 38-54 loss.

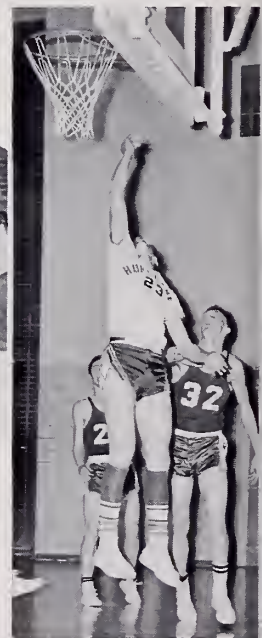

SEASON'S PLAY-OFFS

Walter Carson out-jumps Harrisonburg's Dan Moore (11) as Powers and Simons wait for the tip midway in the fourth quarter. Lexington tallied sixteen points in the last period to account for a 50-33 victory.

Ray Fox scores on a fast break early in the game as Buena Vista's Manuel and Barger follow him down the court. Lexington led throughout the first three periods, but Buena Vista rallied in the fourth quarter to a last minute 52-44 comeback.

Phil Patterson stretches to deflect the ball from the hands of Buena Vista's Greg Paynter (22) and Charles Manuel (32). Patterson sank a total of ten points to tie with his teammate Carson as high scorer of the night.

School spirit can be shown in ways other than attending athletic events. The increased size of the clubs clearly manifests the fact that the members of the student body have a desire to support their school in its every facet. Also the growing membership of the scholastic honor societies shows an evergrowing realization of the importance of education.

WALTER CARSON
President of Student Body

HERBIE CHITTUM
Vice-President of Student Body

MARY DONALD
Secretary-Treasurer of Student Body

The Executive Committee, which is made up of the student body officers and the class presidents, spent the majority of their meeting time during the year in revising the student government constitution. Many of the changes in the constitution were in the field of class officers, because of difficulties which arose from having the student body enlarged.

In November the Executive Committee sponsored a school election between Richard Nixon and John Kennedy, the results of which were contrary to the national opinion. In order to vote, each student had to register and pay a one cent poll tax. The voting took place during the lunch periods.

Another important project before Christmas was directing the annual food basket drive. Members of the committee also continued the custom of leading the blessing at lunch.

EXECUTIVE COMMITTEE REVISES CONSTITUTION

Student representatives to the Executive Committee study proposed legislature. Sitting are Mr. R.M. McMurrin, advisor; Herbie Chittum, Walter Carson, Mary Donald and John McNemar. Standing are Shirley Fix, Stewart Barns, Madison Cummings, and Brownie Carson.

STUDENTS INFORMED THROUGH HONOR COURT ASSEMBLY

Seated around the table are Mr. R.M. McMurrin, adviser; Kathleen McKenna, Terry Ayres, Jeannie Swink, Dottie Newman, Percy Sensabaugh, Eddo Johnston, Chuck Stinnett, Jenny Johnson.

Since this is the first year in a new school, many changes have taken place. One thing that has not changed is our honor system.

This year the Honor Court has tried to set a model for our successors at L.H.S. Our officers this year are Dorothy Newman, Chairman; Jeannie Swink, Secretary; Edward Johnston, Sergeant-at-Arms; and, Percy Sensabaugh, baliff, a new office set up by the Court.

The Honor Court met with the Executive Committee to discuss revisions in the Constitution. These revisions have to be presented to and approved by the student body.

The group also held an assembly before each examination period. The first was a panel discussion on what the Honor Court represents and its specific duties. Questions were asked by members of the student body.

Members participating in the assembly panel discussion are Percy Sensabaugh, Terry Ayres, Jenny Johnson, Jeannie Swink, Dottie Newman, Eddo Johnston, Kathleen McKenna, Chuck Stinnett.

Preparing food for family use are members of the Future Homemakers.

Third row: Mrs. Virginia Tardy, sponsor; Carolyn German, Elizabeth Silvea, Pat Morris, Eva Irvine, Susan Hall, Linda Mohler, Linda J. Brown, Linda Conner, Nancy Clark.

The Future Homemakers have as their goal "Learning to Live Better Today in Order That Their Lives and Those of Their Families May Be Better Tomorrow." Some of the activities of the year were as follows: assisting with entertainment of parents and teachers at "Open House;" jointly sponsoring a Mother-Daughter, Father-Son banquet with the F.F.A. boys, emphasizing "family togetherness;" contributing to the polio drive as a community service; paying the expenses of a member to the Virginia Association Convention and assisting with the expenses of a girl to the National Convention; preparing a box of food and gifts for a needy family at Christmas; conducting devotions as a part of each club meeting; sponsoring a recreational activity for the student body—record hop; giving every member in the club an opportunity to participate in programs and activities; interesting members in attending F.F.A. - F.H.A. camp during the summer.

The planning committee works on the Father-Son, Mother-Daughter Banquet (F.F.A. - F.H.A.).

F. F. A. BOYS PREPARE TO RUN BETTER FARMS

Mr. Glick supervises the use of a new machine in the Agriculture Department.

The Effinger F.F.A. Chapter was organized in 1947 and was named in honor of Mr. George Williams Effinger. Mr. Effinger was superintendent of schools in Rockbridge County from 1905 to 1913. Membership in this organization is made up of boys studying vocational agriculture in Lexington High School. The motto contains four valuable principles: LEARNING TO DO, DOING TO LEARN, EARNING TO LIVE, LIVING TO SERVE.

Supervised by Mr. D.L. Glick, the group chose as its officers the following: Fred Fix, President; David Glick, Vice-President; Harry German, Secretary; Brownie McGee, Treasurer; Rodney Breedlove, Reporter; Bobby Clark, Sentinel.

Students prepare daily assignments for vocational agriculture.

MEMBERS ASSIST IN LIBRARY WORK

Mrs. W.K. McHenry, sponsor of the Library Club, supervised the first meeting of the club at which thirty-two members were enrolled. At this meeting the following officers were elected: Betty Irons, President; Louise Huger, Vice-President; and Noell Coleman, Secretary-Treasurer.

Activities this year have included a tea for the teachers during Book Week and a Christmas program at which Mrs. George Derbyshire read the play "Born To Be King" by Dorothy Sayre. Also, a guest speaker discussed reading for high school students.

Club members have served as student librarians and have assisted in such projects as preparing bulletin board displays and preparing new books for the shelves.

Louise Huger, Vice-President; Betty Irons, President; Noell Coleman, Secretary-Treasurer plan a monthly meeting of the Library Club.

Student librarians assist in the checking in and out of books.

Officers of the National Honor Society: Dottie Newman, Secretary; Betty Cummings, President; Alden Whitmore, Jr., Vice-President.

The Harrington Waddell Chapter of the National Honor Society, organized in 1959, added nine new members to its rank this year. They were inducted at a ceremony which was held the first part of January.

Membership of this society is based on scholarship, leadership, character, and service. Members, chosen by a faculty committee, must maintain a scholastic average of 90.

The main objective of this organization is to create an enthusiasm for scholarship, to stimulate a desire to render service, to promote worthy leadership, and to encourage the development of character in the students of Lexington High School.

The officers are Betty Cummings, President; Alden Whitmore, Jr., Vice-President; and Dottie Newman, Secretary-Treasurer. Miss Gertrude Morrison, the sponsor, has spent a great deal of her time with the promotion of the society's activities.

Nine new members were inducted at a ceremony on January 9.

Selling concessions during basketball season is one of the many activities of the group.

Members of the Boys' Monogram Club look at pictures to be used in the trophy case of the various teams.

The membership of the Boys' Monogram Club is made up of those boys who have earned a monogram in any one of our sports: football, baseball, basketball, or track. This year the number of members has increased, since those boys from Effinger and the other transfer students are automatic members if they obtained letters in the above sports.

The finances for the club are secured through concessions sold at the home basketball games. The club may also raise money by printing and selling programs at the Group II and Group III championship games held at the VMI Fieldhouse early in March.

The club will continue as it has done in the past to buy the small gold footballs for the senior members of the football team and the athletic monograms. The movies taken with the new camera which the club gave to Coach Brewbaker for that purpose have been very helpful to the football team this year.

Officers: Alden Whitmore, Jr., President; Walter Carson, Secretary-Treasurer.

INDUSTRIOUS ARTISANS MATCH SKILL

Mr. Rector Engleman shows James Carter and Ralph Snead how to work with leather.

This year the membership of the Crafts Club grew to a total of fourteen boys. The club itself was organized in the fall by Mr. Rector Engleman, the industrial arts teacher. The members elected Fred Steele as President, Ray Fox as Vice-President, and Alden Whitmore, Jr., as Secretary-Treasurer.

The group had many fields from which to choose a project for the school year. Many chose to do leather work while the rest worked either on small wood projects or did metalcraft. With the finishing of a project, the member would assume responsibility of keeping the shop clean and safe for other's use.

The club also saw several movies pertaining to safety in the shop and in leather carving.

Chester Goolrick, Jerry Fix, and David Davis demonstrate a static electricity machine.

Looking at Jimmy Pickral's stone collection are Meriwether German, Jimmy, Charles Robb, Carter Stubbs, Peach Coleman, David Wheeler, and Chris Brothers.

Successful under the supervision of Mr. A.W. Lindsay and Mr. Emory Potter, the Junior and Senior Science Clubs have heard speakers relating information pertaining to the field of science. This year the members were asked to choose individual projects. These projects ranged from transmitters to fish. The president of the Senior Club is David Davis, and Charles Robbs holds the same position in the Junior Club.

CHEMISTRY-PHYSICS STUDENTS CHOSEN FOR SCHOLARSHIP

Janet Weaver, Anne Lipscomb, Esther Moger. Third row: Walter Carson, Alden Whitmore, Jr., Frank Staton, David Davis, Edward Johnston, Madison Cummings.

The purpose of the Chemistry-Physics Honor Society is to recognize superior achievement in chemistry and physics. To become a member of this society a student must have and maintain a "B" average in either chemistry or physics. This year thirteen new members were invited to join, making a total membership of nineteen. A meeting was held in February to welcome the new members.

Officers elected at the beginning of the year are Susan Howard, President; Edward Johnston, Vice-President; and Dana Sensabaugh, Secretary-treasurer.

Miss Kealde presents a demonstration on petrochemistry for members of the Chemistry classes.

Members of the physics class look intently at a carbon arc.

Miss Elizabeth Dunlap supervises experiments of those persons in the Chemistry-Physics Honor Society.

Linda Irvine, Betty Dobyns, Drew Lindsay, Edmond Hartbarger, and Jenny Johnson look at Christmas cards made by members of the Latin Club.

Cheryl Lackey and Linda Brown dress a doll in the original Roman costume.

The Latin Club is an organization which strives to promote further interest in Roman history among Latin I students. Meetings are held once a month during the class period. The subjects of the meetings are such things as Roman Foods and Meals, Roman Weddings, and Furnishings of the Romans.

Since the number of Latin I students is larger than in previous years, two classes were needed to accommodate them. One of these classes meets the fourth period while the other meets the sixth period.

LABOR VINCIT OMNIA

The officers of the fourth period class are Nelle McLaughlin, Chariman; Richard Lear, Co-chairman; and, Jenifer Johnson, Secretary-treasurer. Those of the sixth period class are as follows: Dee Joyce, Chairman; Robert Irons, Co-chairman; and, Jan Lord, Secretary-treasurer. Both groups have Mrs. Lucille Weaver as their advisor.

FORENSIC TEACHES ART OF PUBLIC SPEAKING

Bruce Bartley delivers an extemporaneous speech to the members of the Forensic Club.

New to LHS this year, the Forensic Club was organized for all students interested in forensic activities and improving their own speech. Mrs. Thomas Ennis, the junior-senior English teacher, served adeptly as advisor to the group.

In order to prepare members for speaking publicly, the importance of proper tonal qualities, register, enunciation, posture, and eye contact were emphasized. Also, after every speech notes of criticism were given to the speaker by all observers.

Throughout the year members delivered various types of speeches—demonstrative, extemporaneous, oratorical, and others. The participation of many members in the school-wide forensic contest in the spring is also notable.

A panel discussion is conducted by Esther Moger, Dan Burger, Betty Kirk McHenry, and Richard Griffith.

MAJORETTES CHOSEN TO LEAD BAND

The Lexington High School band is one of the new additions to the school. Under the direction of Mr. Bill Tolen, the group has presented several concerts.

Members from the group have organized a dance band called the King's Men. The purpose of this group is primarily to give "those more advanced bandsmen an opportunity for self-expression in music."

Newly elected for the group this year are the majorettes. These six girls will lead the band next year when they perform at the various activities of the school.

The members of the concert band are as follows: Clarinets—First row: Charles Spencer, Andy Hunter. Second row: Nancy Smith, Carolyn Spencer, Karen Dean. Third row: Carol Black, Cathy Slusser, Marta Schlenz. Flutes—Susan Wise. Saxophones—Carolyn Richards, Bernard Goodbar. Trumpets—First row: Jimmy Pickral, Jerry Topping. Second row: Joe Zollman, Beverly Mays. Third row: Gordon Chappell, David Garnett. Trombones—Tommy Pickral, Monty Brothers. Baritone horn—Bobby Pickral. Drums—Tommy Hickman, Meriwether German.

NEW GLEE CLUB ORGANIZED

Cheryl Lackey, Linda E. Brown, Donna Marshall, and Reedy Kay Clarke (at piano) practice for the All-State Chorus held in Charlottesville, Virginia, February 10-12.

During the past school year the glee club has presented numerous programs for the student body, local civic groups, churches, and the general public. In February the group sent Donna Marshall, Cheryl Lackey, Reedy Kay Clarke, and Linda E. Brown to the All-State Chorus held in Charlottesville, Virginia.

Practicing for Youth Sunday at the Presbyterian Church are a group of sopranos and altos from the glee club.

Members of the "Teenactors" rehearse a scene for an upcoming play. Seated are Andrea Hamilton and Wanda VanNess. Those standing are Terry Ayres, John Dunlap, and Faye Richards.

Suzanne Barksdale, Mary Ridley, and Lisa Tracy act out the witches' scene from Macbeth.

This year's "Teenactors," meeting during activities period, have been mainly concerned with the fundamentals of acting. Under the direction of Mrs. Yvonne Dickens, the club members have presented skits and readings before the other members and have listened to recordings of plays. Also during the course of the school year, several plays were presented for the student body and the public. Officers: Nancy Howard, President; Pam Johnson, Vice-President; Suzanne Barksdale, Secretary; Jennifer Johnson, Treasurer.

TEENACTORS REHEARSE FOR PRESENTATION

STUDENTS ACQUIRE JOBS THROUGH D. E.

First row: David Irvine, Betty Lee Tyree, Billy Claytor, Patti Painter, Linda Fauber, Miss Margaret Hammack, sponsor. Second row: Clinton Irvine, Willie Patterson, Ralph Hostetter, Larry Fix, Warren Brown, Sammy Larew.

Before going to their respective jobs, members of the Distributive Education Club judge a window display at Leggett's Department Store.

The Distributive Education Club is one co-ordinated with the distributive education classes. The students who take the courses are required to secure a job in a local business concern. These people are paid for their work and also receive a grade on it.

The club this year was responsible for a merchandise display in the school. The articles for the display were supplied by the local merchants. The members also attended district D. E. meetings and state conventions and entered numerous contests. The highlight of the year was the Employee-Employer Banquet.

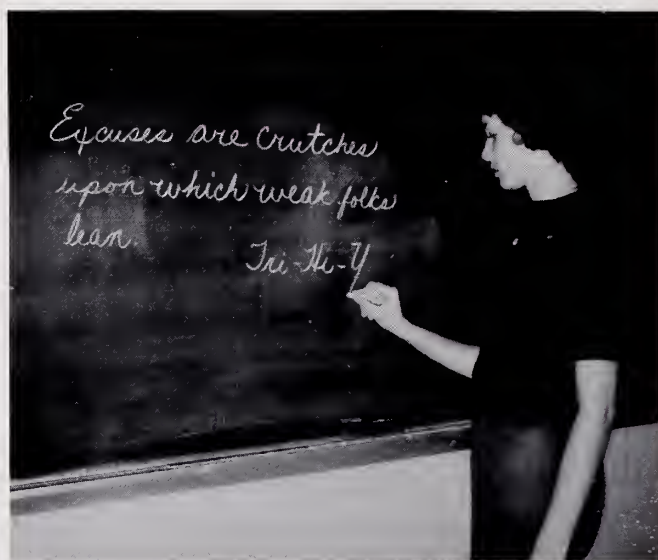

Officers are as follows: Billy Claytor, President; Warren Brown, Vice-President; Linda Fauber, Secretary; David Irvine, Treasurer; Patti Painter, Parliamentarian; Betty Lee Tyree, Reporter.

TRI-HI-Y SLOGANS INFLUENCE STUDENTS

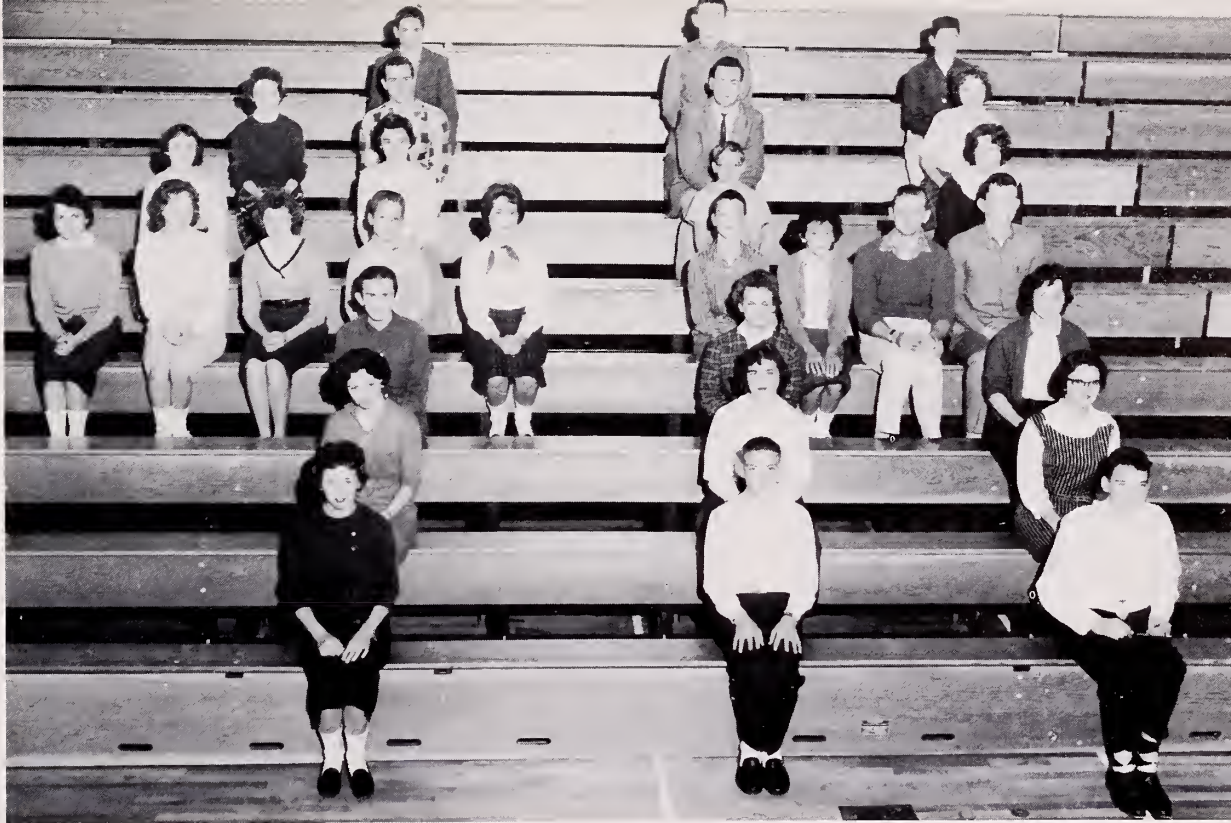

In its second year at LHS, the co-ed Tri-Hi-Y has as its four aims: clean sportsmanship, clean scholarship, clean living, and clean speech. Miss Joan Irvin, sponsor of the group, directed the collection of Christmas baskets for the needy and the placing of words-to-live-by on the blackboards of each homeroom. The club itself is an interdenominational youth service group. The officers are as follows: President, Kaye Parrish; Vice-President, Sue Chittum; Chaplain, Marvin Irvine; Secretary-Treasurer, Patricia Knick.

Patricia Knick places a worth-while slogan on a home-room blackboard.

Tri-Hi-Y members pack clothes for the needy families in the community.

BETTER HOME MANAGEMENT IS 4-H GOAL

4-H'ers work on the electrical wiring of a home.

This year the 4-H goal has been to achieve knowledge of better home management. Activities and projects this year have ranged from foods and dress design to entomology and electrical wiring.

Two of the members, Joanne Campbell and Reedy Kay Clarke, attended the Virginia State Fair and have been chosen as officers of the Rockbridge County Honor Club.

The club also presented a demonstration for the Junior Woman's Club and participated in the Share of the Fun Contest. Officers: Willie Patterson, President; Joanne Campbell, Vice-President; Reedy Kay Clarke, Secretary; Rhea Harris, Treasurer; Richard Showalter, Betty Miller, Game Leaders.

Members of the 4-H listen intently to a guest speaker.

CHESS CLUB NEWEST ADDITION IN SCHOOL

The Chess Club is one of Lexington High's newest clubs. Under the direction of Mrs. Yvonne Dickens, the club meets after school hours. The officers are Richard Griffith, King; Charles Stinnett, Bishop; Chris Bosworth, Knight.

PARLEZ-VOUS FRANCAIS? OUI, NOUS LE PARLONS.

Le Circle Francais, sponsored by Mrs. Yvonne Dickens, consists of only those students who have had two years of French. The club's objective is to better inform the members of the everyday life of the French and the history of the country itself. This year the meetings, held during the class periods, were highlighted by the showing of slides taken of the various places of interest in Paris.

The French Club often makes use of the tape recorder in order to improve French pronunciation. Mrs. Dickens here supervises the work of Madison Cummings. Other members in the picture are Sammie Wright, Janice Foltz, Louise Huger, Dana Sensabaugh, Gayle Donald, Jane Crockett, John McNemar, Sandra Hostetter, and Susan Howard.

FEATURES- CHRONICLE OF THE YEAR

Dances, concerts, athletic and scholastic contests, and innumerable other activities added to the enjoyment of the first year in our new school. Definitely visible in the pictures on the following pages is the heightened interest of all students in the undertakings of their alma mater. Only with school spirit and devotion can a school achieve success in its every activity.

SEPTEMBER 1 BRINGS OPENING

September 1... School opens its doors to receive a throng of students from vacation.

September 5... Labor Day looms as the first holiday of the year.

Everyone desperately dashed to and fro under the confused directions of guides Ray Fox, Dottie Newman, Janice Foltz, Bobby Simons, and George Neofotis as the new high school officially opened. However, no students seemed to have much trouble finding their way out of the building when the day ended early at noon.

September 9... Varsity cheerleading tryouts.

... Students of all ages visit the Tri-Brook Country Club for final party of the summer on a Friday night.

September 16... School spirit at its peak is embodied in the first rousing pep rally.

The junior class mechanics labor on Labor Day. Inspecting the car are Dan Burger, Pete Drake, Timmy Hickman, and Bobby Simons.

September 23... After a week of posters and banners, members of the student body campaign for student offices.

September 26-30... SCAT and STEP tests; a week of study halls for seniors and eighth graders.

September 29... Magazine drive begins. Throughout the week various glimpses are seen of high-sale, long-feathered hats!

September 30... Another pep rally.

Bruce Bartley delivers one of his famous orations in honor of his candidate for vice-president of the student body, Alden Whitmore.

OF NEW HIGH SCHOOL

October 1... The varsity cheerleaders take to the country for the night and sleep soundly (?) till milking time.

In the traditional magazine assembly Mr. Forrest Jones points out the assets of being a good salesman. On the table are a few of the prizes that were given to reward the successful sellers. Hershey bars also made their rounds that week!

As dawn breaks, the cheerleaders gather in sweat shirts to welcome in the new day. (Sammie had asthma!)

October 10... Junior varsity cheerleaders are chosen after school.

October 13... The first six-week period ends.

October 14... Another holiday!

... The cheerleaders sponsor a sock hop after the football game to celebrate football victories.

October 19... Disaster strikes... the first report cards.

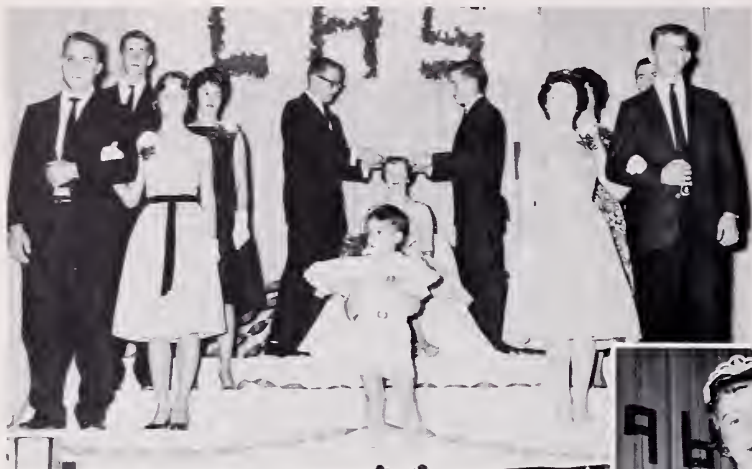

... Everyone is "orientated" in the annual assembly to explain the various school organizations.

October 20... Clubs meet.

October 31... Halloween!

Homecoming weekend also brought the dedication of a new scoreboard, given by the Lexington service clubs. For the first time the score and the statistics were flashed across the football field to those in the stands.

Co-captains Percy Sensabaugh and "Yodie" Hamric crown Betty Cummings queen of homecoming. She and her court reigned over the dance, which was held in the gymnasium of the "old" high school. Members of the court and their escorts included Shirley Fix and Jack Cauley, Nancy Howard and Walter Carson, Donna Marshall and Roger Lord, and Rosa McLaughlin and George Neofotis. Dennie Swink was the crown-bearer.

MISS BETTY CUMMINGS
Homecoming Queen

HOMECOMING FILLED WITH

Four of the varsity cheerleading squad can be seen leading the homecoming yells in the State Theater. Lexington students packed the theater after they completed the traditional parade through town and the "cheers under the spotlight."

- November 1... Juniors and seniors travel to Parry McCluer High School for College and Career Night.
- November 3... "I Aim at the Stars" opens at the State Theater to usher in the homecoming weekend amid the cheers and yells of the Lexington student body.
- November 4... Electric scoreboard is dedicated on the recreation field.
- November 5... Old memories are revived as the seniors sponsor the homecoming dance in the "old" school with "football" as the decorative theme.

- November 6... Senator A. Willis Robertson delivers the key address in the dedication of Lexington High School. Upperclassmen again are guides for the occasion.
- November 7... A first-hand taste of national election issues is received in assembly as members of the student body campaign for the Republican and Democratic parties.
- November 8... Complete chaos envelopes the school as the photographers take individual pictures.
... Richard M. Nixon overwhelmingly wins in the school mock elections.
- November 11... The Shrine Bowl Classic brings the "Buena Vista" cheerleaders to the Hurricanes' pep rally.
- November 12... The anticipated Moose Lodge party arrives for the varsity football team and cheerleaders.

Sammie Wright lauds the qualifications of John F. Kennedy for President of the United States as Susan Howard waits her turn to present the Republican platform.

- November 14... Photographers return for club pictures with more chaos.
- November 21... The basketballs are brought out of the closets as practice begins on the court.
- November 24-27... Thanksgiving Holidays!
- November 28... Science assembly at school is presented by Mr. Lewis.
 ... The Lexington Lions Club is host to the football team and cheerleaders with a banquet in the Robert E. Lee Hotel.

Ballot-officials Sammie Wright and Eddo Johnston watch as Betty Cummings and Walter Carson cast their votes in the mock national elections.

HIGH SPIRITS

- December 1... The parents go on regular class schedules during Parents' Night.
- December 2... First basketball pep rally...
- December 3... First road race from Buena Vista to Lexington.
- December 13... Washington and Lee brass choir entertains at student assembly.
- December 14... Glee club gives Christmas program.

Familiar to all students is the long measuring cord shown in the picture! Here Dottie Newman prepares Martha Johnson for her school picture.

- December 14-19... The student body works together in the Christmas basket campaign.
- December 22... School closes for the holidays after a week of mischief and basketball games!
 ... Juniors give sock hop to the music of the Starlites.
- December 23... The traditional Christmas dance draws many students to the Tri-Brook Country Club.
- December 25... Christmas!

ONE WEEK OF FREEDOM LAPSES

Dolled-up for the biggest pep rally of the year are Miss Brucie Bartley, Miss Eddie Johnston, and Miss Skippie Lear, who won the hearts of their supporters with their rendition of "Big Apple, Little Apple, Suzie-Q."

The varsity football team and cheerleaders and their dates climaxed the season with a Saturday night session of the Sportsters at the Moose Lodge. An abundance of food and hospitality attracted the party-goers, and they danced into the night to the strains of "Baby, One More Time!"

- January 3...Students trudge back to school with apprehensions of approaching examinations.
- January 9...New members are added to the ranks of the National Honor Society.
- January 11...Southeast assembly piano recital sweeps students into a world of dreams.
- January 12...After weeks of practice and postponement the majorettes are chosen to march before the band.
- January 14...Junior and seniors breeze bewilderedly through college boards after a rugged night's trip across Afton Mountain from the Albemarle basketball game.

Mr. Carson and Mr. Beebe attend their third period solid geometry class unprepared but eager to learn.

- January 16...The Honor Court, with their gavel and pitcher of water, preside over assembly, where key problems and uncertainties arising in student government are discussed.
- January 18, 19, and 23...Panic! Exams.
- January 20...Mid-exam snow offers some hope of studying, but, alas, it was never fulfilled.
- January 24...Scarletter comes out with Honor Court feature and tasty tidbits of gossip.
- January 26...Snow strikes again!
- January 30...And even more disaster...Report cards.

BETWEEN FOOTBALL AND BASKETBALL

February 3...Turmoil rocks the school as everyone is alerted to leave school at 11:00 A.M. due to a heavy snowfall.

February 8...And even more snow yet! Schools are closed.

February 11...Sophomores throw beautiful Valentine dance featuring music by the Rebels.

Lexington boys who participated in the Lexington-Buena Vista road race are congratulated by Mayor Holstein.

February 13...James Bland Music Contest.

February 14...Southeast assembly program.

February 15...CRYSTAL deadline.

February 16...Assembly.

David Wheeler stands ready for the passedball in a game in which the Buena Vista eighth graders romped over Lexington eighth graders with a 31-24 score. Lexington's Edwards was high scorer for the night with a total bag of ten points.

Lexington beauties, Kaye Parrish and Louise Huger, think back over memories of the Christmas parades. Kaye represented Lexington in the Buena Vista parade, while Louise stayed in Lexington for her home-town parade.

February 17...FFA-FHA Banquet.

February 20...National Symphony Orchestra

February 22-24...Valley District Tournament.

Timmy Hickman works late into the night developing pictures for the CRYSTAL. Timmy crammed hundreds of pictures into the first few days of February to meet the final deadline of the book.

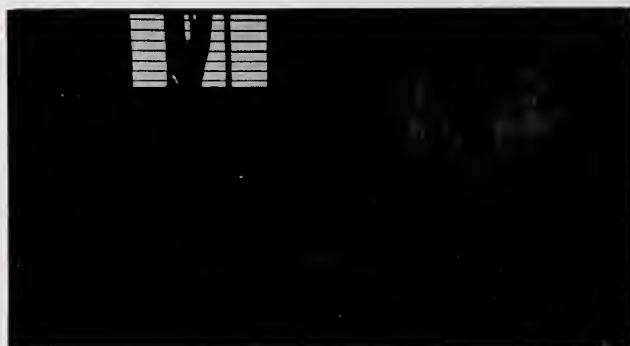

March 3...Glee club concert.
 March 6...Fourth report cards are issued.
 March 11...One-act play festival.
 March 17...Band concert.
 March 31...Easter Holidays begin.

GRADUATION CLIMAXES HILARIOUS YEAR

Three upperclass couples talk back and forth as they dance to the music of the Rebels. The bare feet are attributed to the fact that no shoes were allowed on the floor of the decorated gymnasium.

March 30...Theses are due for seniors. They can now start looking forward to spending their five hundred dollars.
 April 12...FHA meeting here.
 April 15...Forensic meet.
 ...French Tournament ends.
 ...Latin Tournament.
 May 13...District track meet. Highlight! Junior-Senior Prom.
 May 29-31...Final exams.
 June 5...Seniors go into the world after graduation.

All is quiet on the western front as the CRYSTAL goes in and the wild staff meetings adjourn.

ADVERTISEMENTS

Many of the extra-curricular activities and athletic contests this year have been made possible through the support of local merchants and business establishments. It is the wish of all those of the CRYSTAL staff that students continue to patronize those firms which have helped make this book available.
